

27th Annual General Land Office Adopt-A-Beach Fall Cleanup Set for September 28

Volunteers scour the beach in Corpus Christi.

As we say goodbye to another Texas summer, the Texas General Land Office staff is excitedly preparing for the annual Adopt-A-Beach Fall Cleanup.

Now in its 27th year, the fall cleanup is a fun and easy way to keep our coast and marine life safe, healthy and beautiful.

That's why Texas Land Commissioner Jerry Patterson is encouraging Texans of all ages to join the effort that has removed more than 17 million pounds of litter from the Gulf Coast.

Volunteers may register at check-in sites between 8:30 a.m. and 9 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 28, 2013 (The St. Jo Island and I-45 Estuarial Corridor sites are full). Most of the 29 sites will provide cold drinks, hot food and fun activities immediately following the cleanup.

Shell Oil Company is the lead sponsor for the 27th Texas General Land Office Adopt-A-Beach Fall Cleanup—one of the most successful all-volunteer efforts in the nation. Other sponsors include HNTB, Apache Corporation, Cameron International Corporation, Cheniere Energy, Flint Hills Resources, Halliburton, Schlumberger and the Ocean Conservancy.

Lastly, don't forget to upload your cleanup pictures on Facebook and make sure to tag our page, Texas General Land Office Adopt-A-Beach program.

Shell employees and their families were out in force for last fall's cleanup.

Don't Forget

Pick a site and come out Saturday, September 28.

Wear sunscreen, shoes, sunglasses and a hat.

Bring plenty of drinking water and mosquito repellent.

Check in by 9 a.m.

Do not disturb the habitat of nesting shorebirds.

For your safety, stay off the dunes.

Check our website for a list of hotels along the coast that offer special rates for Adopt-A-Beach volunteers.

Don't pick up hazardous materials such as hypodermic needles, sharp objects, old car batteries, condoms, animal carcasses, or other unidentified, questionable objects.

We'll clean rain or shine!

Volunteers Pick Up 87 Tons of Trash at the Spring Cleanup

The Texas General Land Office is grateful to everyone who participated in the 27th Annual Texas General Land Office Adopt-A-Beach Spring Cleanup.

Despite the frigid north wind, close to 6,000 Texans descended upon 28 of our beaches and removed more than 87 tons of trash. Hundreds of trash bags were filled with common beach trash, such as cigarette butts, beer cans and other litter. However, it was the unusual items found that emphasized the importance of taking care of our coast. Potentially dangerous items such as diving gear, a plastic turkey, a bottle of sulfuric acid, hair extensions, a burned mattress and a syringe exposed volunteers to the carelessness shown by some beachgoers.

"Trash on Texas beaches kills fish, birds and tourism potential," Texas Land Commissioner Jerry Patterson said after helping the cleanup efforts at Surfside Beach. "The nearly 6,000 volunteers who showed up and got to work today to do something about it make me proud to be a Texan."

Commissioner Patterson and members of the Surfrider Foundation teamed up to clean the beach at Surfside.

Our next coastwide cleanup is quickly approaching and will take place on September 28th. For more information, please visit www.texasadoptabeach.org or contact the GLO at 1-877-TX-COAST. 🌊

Volunteer Spotlight: Eastfield College, Dallas

For the past 19 years, these dedicated beach goers have recruited student volunteers to participate in the annual fall and spring Adopt-A-Beach cleanups. Led by Professor Jeff Hughes, they make the six-hour drive to St. Jo Island in Port Aransas to demonstrate their support for Texas beaches. Their determination to help our coast and commitment to the Adopt-A-Beach program has made them an invaluable resource and we are grateful for their continued presence and support.

Eastfield College volunteers return to Port Aransas.

Art Contest Grand Prize Winner Announced

And it's a wrap! One lucky fifth-grade class is heading to Schlitterbahn Waterpark in New Braunfels thanks to classmate Nia-Isabella Garza, grand prize winner of the Texas General Land Office's Adopt-A-Beach Treasures of the Texas Coast Children's Art Contest.

Over 3,000 students from across the state submitted their interpretation of the Adopt-A-Beach message; however, it was Garza's vision of a clean, serene beach that caught the eye of Texas Land Commissioner Jerry Patterson.

"This peaceful beach scene beautifully carries the Adopt-A-Beach message that 'Trashing Texas Beaches isn't cool,'" Patterson said. "Twice a year, youths just like the one in this watercolor learn a real-world lesson about the impact of litter on our beaches through the Adopt-A-Beach cleanups."

Garza's winning work of art, along with 39 runners-up, will appear in the 2014 Adopt-A-Beach calendar.

Nia-Isabella Garza was the 2013 Grand Prize winner.

Welcome to the Program!

Please welcome the newest Adopt-A-Beach site coordinators – Kendall Barrow, Sea Rim State Park; Clarissa Flores, Mustang Island State Park; Rosanna Gossett, North Corpus Christi Beach at the Texas State Aquarium; and Cindy Escobedo and Blanca Macias, South Padre Island, Cameron County Parks Department. We're happy to have you on our team! 🐚

Year-to-Date Recap

The Adopt-A-Beach program through its organized cleanup efforts, the Beach Guardians and their cleanups, and all groups that have done special cleanups throughout the year have done an amazing job. So far this year, 18,420 volunteers have removed 245 tons or 478,000 pounds of trash from Texas beaches. Thank you for doing your part to keep our beaches clean. 🐚

Join Us for the First Cleanup Expedition

Get ready to embark on the ultimate beach clean-up challenge by competing in our upcoming Adopt-A-Beach Cleanup Expedition!

The first of its kind, this trash “treasure” hunt will allow teams to navigate the four-wheel drive terrain of Padre Island National Seashore while picking up litter and searching for basic trash items in order to receive points.

Our action packed day will begin with an educational briefing at the Malaquite Visitor Center pavilion before heading out to the beach. Prizes, lunch and transportation from the visitor center to beach and back will be provided. The event will be held on Saturday, November 2nd at 8:30 a.m. Space is limited to eight teams of four people, so hurry and register your team today at www.texasadoptabeach.org.
